

Do you want to prepare and present a property for sale and rental on a global scale?

We present two useful web applications

Dear readers,

We proudly present two business systems that significantly improve the processes of selling and renting real estate, while also enhancing communication between agents, buyers, sellers, and other external collaborators in the real estate market.

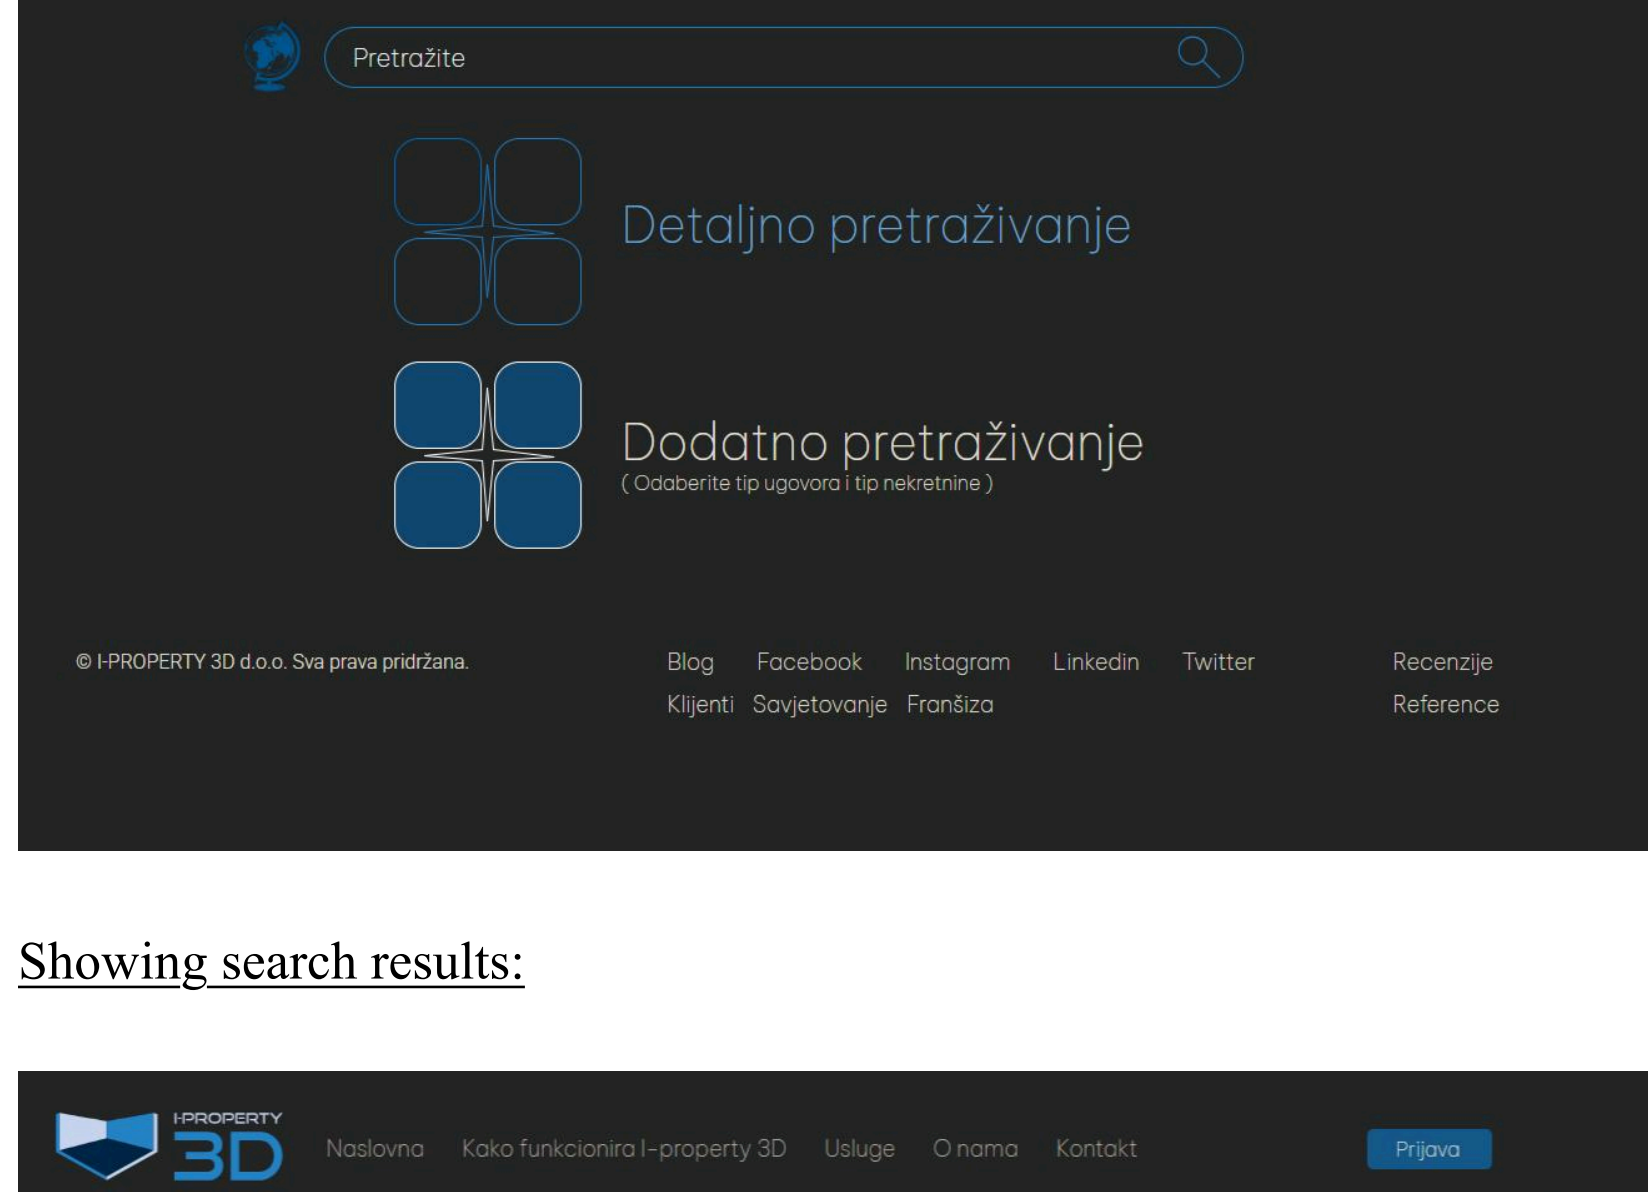

The "I-property 3D" system is designed as a platform that connects the best agents in the real estate market with legal and natural persons who want to elevate their business to a much higher level than where it currently stands.

There are two business cooperation options:

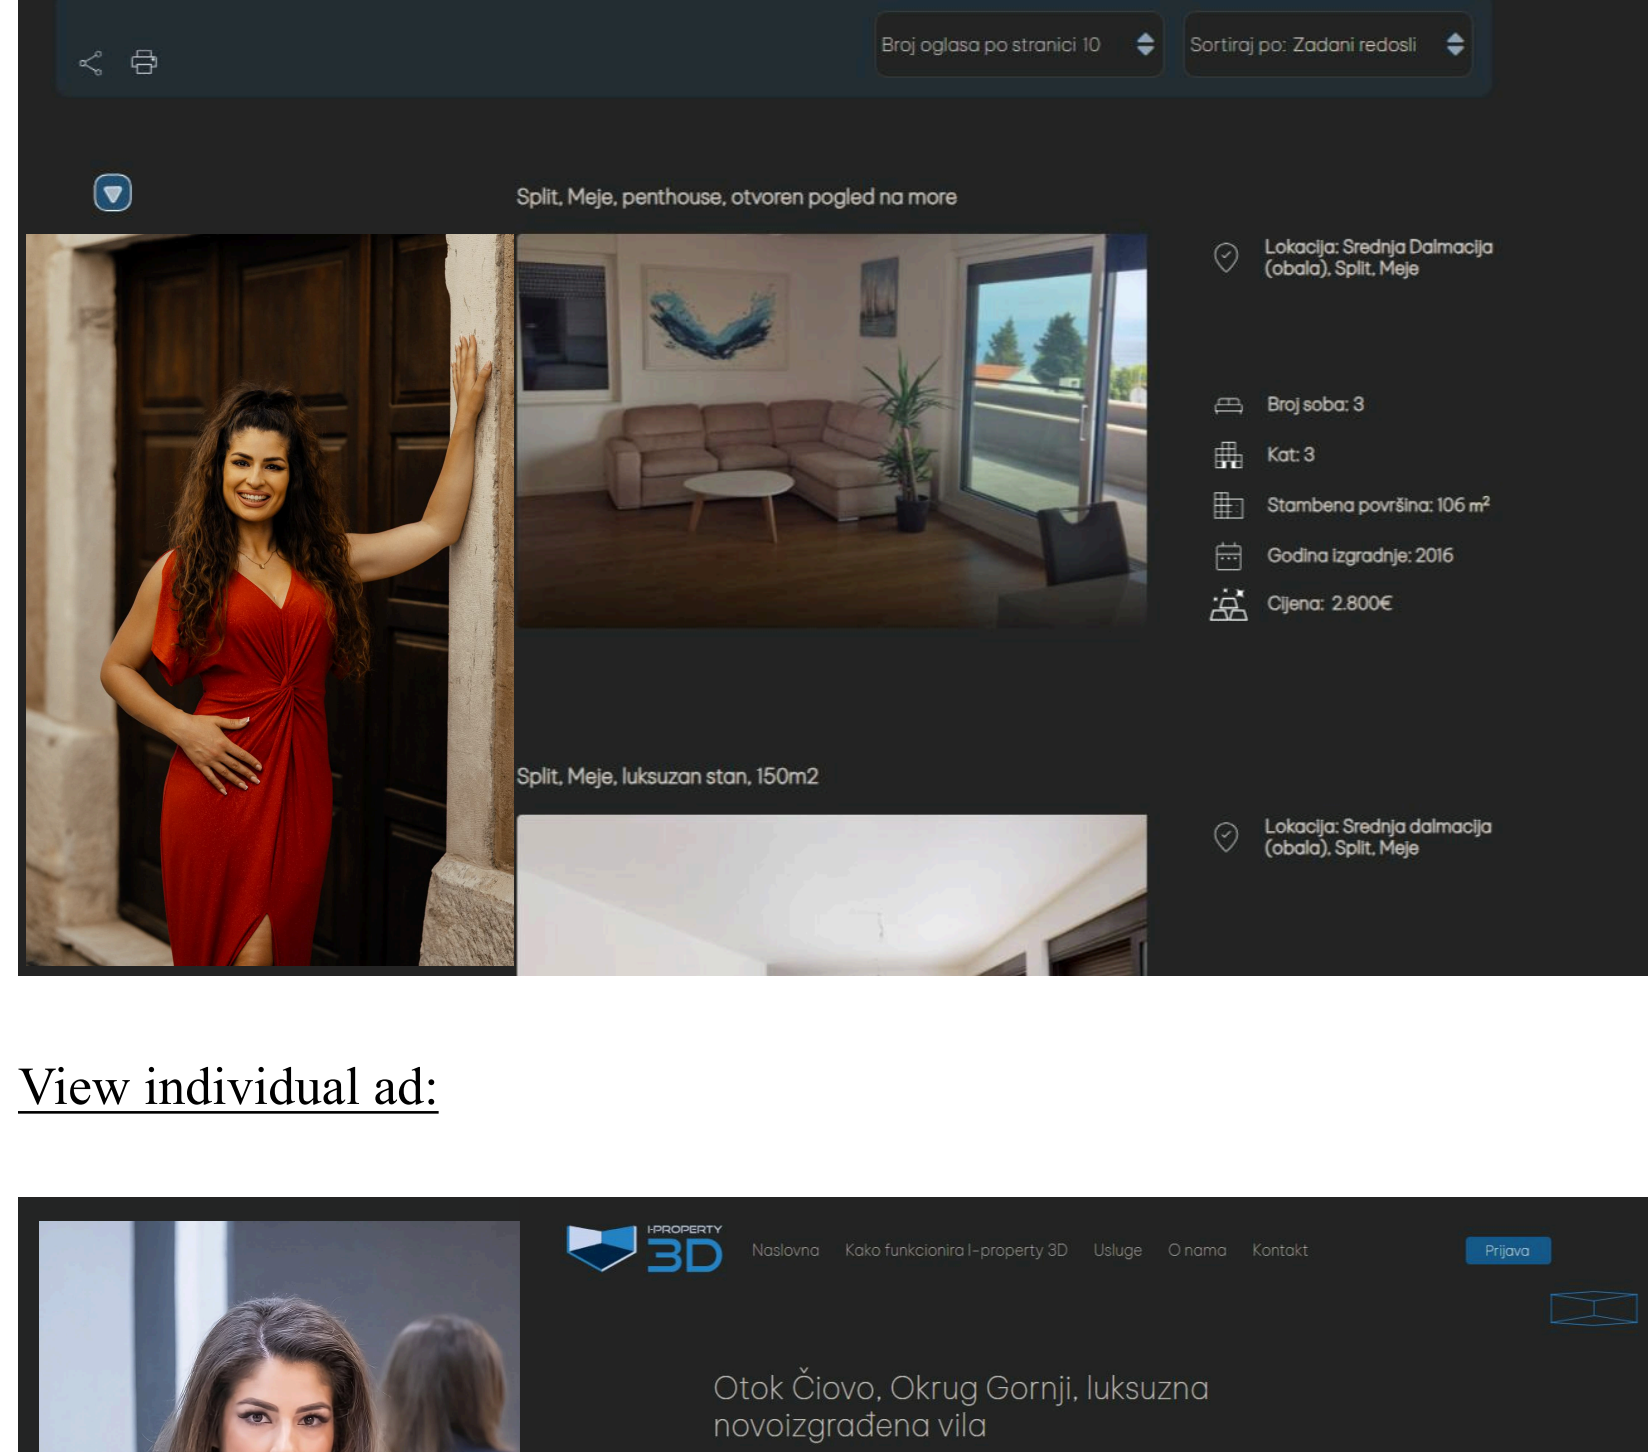

- Franchisees
- Licensed partners

You can see the details of the web application below:
